The Honorable Loy W. Henderson
2611 31st Street, N. W.
Washington 9, D. C.

Dear Loy:

As you retire from government service after so long and fruitful a career, I want to add my every best wish for the future to the many others you are receiving.

We here have valued our long and close association with you and are deeply appreciative of the close cooperation and wise advice and guidance we have received from you on problems of mutual interest. I hope it may be possible for us to call upon you in the future when we may be seeking sound counsel in certain problem areas.

With warmest personal regards,

Faithfully yours,
